with reference to Government order No. 1751-53/Muz. 588-17-4 dated 13th January 1919 stating that the request of the Sri Vallabharaya Sani renovation committee for a state grant will be considered, when the committee prepares an estimate for the necessary repairs to the temple and when half the estimated amount is deposited in a Government Treasury, I have the honor to state that a sum of nearly Rs 3000/- has been contributed by the devotees for the repairs of the temple and is deposited partly in the Government Savings Bank in the name of the Builder of the Bangalore Temple and partly in the Co-operative Bank, as detailed in the margin.

Garbhagudi Rs. 1611/- Sukavasi 203/-
Madhyaranga 921/-
Kalyanulatan 1740/-
Tajara 470/- 9177/-

for minor repairs Rs. 300/- for Samprokshan and Rs. 253/- for supervision charges at 10% are also said to be required in addition.

The committee are at present enabled to commence the renovation of a portion of the building as per first four estimates and to meet the sundry charges which are all up to Rs. 5125/- as they are approved.

that any further delay will result in the further deterioration of the building.

In the above circumstances the sanction of the Government may be kindly accorded to the first four estimates and a sum equal to the public contribution provided from the State grant.

The entire records ending with the Bangalore Taluk Amildar's report No.738 dated 31st January 1922 are herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
